THE ORCHESTRA

The Moldova Philharmonic, one of the leading orchestras in Romania, was officially founded by Georges Enesco in 1918 through the Philharmonic Society of Iasi, Romania. It has existed as a provincial orchestra associated with the conservatory of music since 1893. Such esteemed soloists as Sviatoslav Richter, Igor Oistrakh and Philippe Entremont have performed with this orchestra.

THE CONDUCTOR

Ion Baciu studied conducting at the Music Academy in Bucharest and later became conductor of the State Philharmonic Orchestra in Ploiesti (1955-1962). Since 1962 he has been conductor of the Moldova Philharmonic as well as its chamber ensemble. He also teaches classes at the Georges Enesco Conservatory in Iasi. Maestro Baciu has been a guest conductor in fifteen different countries, including Canada, Cuba, France, Poland, Germany, Sweden, U.S.A., Soviet Union, and Italy.

Co-sponsors: Waldorf School Association, U. of A. Students' Union, Alberta Culture.

Next Performance: The orchestra will perform with the Stuttgart Eurythmeum in the Southern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium, Calgary, on Tuesday, October 24, 1978. Please telephone the Waldorf School Association at 489-0919 for tickets and transportation arrangements.
